Check out our recommendations for this collection, selected by our editors! WS2: Community Service. 234 point. "I'm not going to form a party. I don't want to take responsibility for someone else's ideology. And also - I don't want to create a party for a specific person. I am creating a party to give young people more opportunities for development and self-realization. And more opportunities to realize their creative potential," Polonsky said when asked by the editor of the Public Activities column. WS2: Charity. 234 points. "I don't want to be a philanthropist."
